

Video/DVD by Category

Offenders

Title	Description	Length	Year
Batterers Will Kill: Intimate Partner Homicide	Intimate partner homicide is a far too common outcome of domestic violence. Often the warning signs are unknown, ignored, or not taken seriously. This gripping new video, Batterers Will Kill , was created to help both domestic violence survivors and a broad range of service providers about lethality indicators and to help prevent intimate partner homicide.	24 Minutes	2004
Domestic Violence	A group of professionals discuss the dangerous behaviors of batterers and how to protect victims.
From Dependency to Empowerment Part III
In OUR BEST INTEREST Part	Thirteen 3- to 5-minute scenes depicting a batterer using one or more abusive tactics on the Power & Control Wheel against his partner. These scenes are used at the beginning of women's groups to focus discussion on one of the many themes explored in the curriculum.	36:51 Minutes
IN OUR BEST INTEREST Part II	Four 20-25 minute presentations: "Power & Control: Tactics of Men Who Batter" by Jill Abernathey, "Cultural Facilitators of Battering" by Ellen Pence, "Women's Rage" by Rosemary Rocco and "Why Do I Feel Crazy?" by Ellen Pence	36:51 Minutes
Michael and Tamara	Shows batterer entitlement.
MPDI - Creating a Process of Change for Men Who Batter	Eight vignettes	36:20 Minutes

Power & Control: Tactics of Men		30 Minutes	1985
Victim Stories
Title	Description	Length	Year
Cry For Help: The Tracy Thurman Story	Tracey Thurman was a real-life Connecticut housewife who, throughout her marriage, suffered horrendous abuse at the hands of her husband. The beatings culminate in a single bloody night when Buck Thurman stabs his estranged wife 13 times. She survives--barely--and Buck is arrested. Having failed to get proper protection from the local police force, Tracey successfully sued the officers in 1989. The long-range result was the Thurman Law, which called for mandatory arrests in wife-beating cases in Connecticut and several other states. Nancy McKeon, who plays Tracey Thurman in A Cry for Help, starred in the film in the hope that it would prevent Buck Thurman's early release from prison. A Cry For Help: The Tracy Thurman Story first aired on October 2, 1989; Thurman was scheduled for release in 1991.	2 Hours	2000
Breaking the Silence: Journeys of Hope	Caterhin Tatge PBS Documentary Director, shows how women who have gotten out of cycle of domestic violence and celebrating courage of the women and takes a look behind the scenes of how the film came to be.
Defending Our Lives:	Sarah Buel, D.A., narrates horrible truths and tortures endured by victims of domestic violence Battered Women Defense Counsel talks about the stories of women who were tried and incarcerated for protecting and defending themselves after years of abuse with each women telling her personal story of abuse. The film talks about the failure of the justice system to protect battered women.	42 Minutes	1993
House of Ruth: Take a Stand Against Violence	True accounts of women who were at mercy of abuser and theirs stories of torture and fear and survival and accounts of support received from House Of Ruth	12:45 Minutes	2002
Just To Have a Peaceful Life	This video profiles Pat's 45-year marriage to a man who routinely battered her and abused their five children. Pat describes how she left her husband several times, only to return because of financial and health reasons. Pat died at 63 without ever achieving the peaceful life she longed to have.	10 Minutes	1990
Mann Ke Majeere: An Album of Women's Dreams	This story of a woman's journey from a battered wife to truck driver is portrayed by well-known actor, Mita Vashist. Shot in Pushkar, the story was inspired by the life of Shamim Pathan from Ahmedabad who left an abusive marriage to become a matador taxi driver. The video raises important issues of violence against women, women in non-traditional occupations and their access to public space.	18 Minutes
SAFE: Inside a Battered Women's Shelter	This film follows three women through their stay in an inner city shelter. They tell their stories, live their lives and talk about how being in shelter makes them feel. This film is narrated by Susan Sarandon and is an excellent film that shows a sample of what everyday shelter life is like for a battered woman.	49 Minutes	2000

Surviving Domestic Violence	Testimonies of four survivors of domestic violence illustrate the agonies of abusive relationships and the triumphs of escaping their abusers. Each woman's experience in seeking shelter, obtaining an order of protection, and pursuing happiness for herself and her children differs slightly, but their general story-lines communicate the cycle of abuse and the victory of freedom.	23 Minutes	1996
Surviving Domestic Violence	Testimonies of four survivors of domestic violence illustrate the agonies of abusive relationships and the triumphs of escaping their abusers. Each woman's experience in seeking shelter, obtaining an order of protection, and pursuing happiness for herself and her children differs slightly, but their general story-lines communicate the cycle of abuse and the victory of freedom.	23 Minutes	1996
Self-Help
Title	Description	Length	Year
Escape the Abuse: Leaving Smart	A practical "how-to" guide about leaving safely an abusive relationship. The program further examines the problem of domestic violence and offers guidance and support for women wishing to make different choices in their lives. Packed with imperative information for any individual in the process of leaving an abusive relationship. The video highlights the necessity of a carefully developed support network, including relatives and police officers.	20 Minutes	1992
Becoming Employable & Employed	One agency's experience with the Adkins Life Skills Program.
The Relaxation Channel Vol. II	Audio Vision Includes 4 parts to help your patients reduce stress, relax, laugh and feel better includes: The Relaxation Tape: images of nature to soothing music; Short Circuiting Stress: narrated by author and	1:51:00 Minutes
The Relaxation Channel Vol. III	Includes 5 parts to help your patients reduce stress, relax, laugh and feel better includes: SAVING FOR STRESS-how to prepare for stress, THE RELAXATION TAPE, JUST RELAX-nature and images	1:45:00 Minutes
Children
Title	Description	Length	Year
Breaking the Silence: Children Stories PBS, documentary (Manual available)	A powerful documentary that chronicles the impact of domestic violence on children and the recurring failings of family courts across the country to protect them from their abusers. Co-produced by Tatge/Lasseur Productions and CTPTV , the film features interviews with children and their battered mothers, detailing their stories of abuse at home and their revictimization at the hands of the family court system. While it notes failure of the system to protect, it is the hope that this documentary will encourage the allies of good lawyers, guardian, judges, and advocates across the country to work with their colleagues to further enhance the family court systems response to battered women and their children. Parental Alienation Syndrome, a controversial theory often used in family court to deny battered women custody of their children is also examined.	57 Minutes	2005

Bridging Domestic Violence and Child Abuse	This video clearly demonstrates that a child's safety is directly linked to keeping the mother safe.	12 Minutes	1999
Child Witness to Violence: Emotional Trauma ABC News. 20.20	Twenty-Twenty special on the trauma children endure due to domestic violence.	10 Minutes	1996
Children of The Lie
Far Away From the Storm	Cartoon/child sketches set against music show children's pictures of abuse from their artwork expressing their conflicting and painful emotions in a storybook fashion.	3:20 Minutes	1993
FRONTLINE: Failure To Protect: A National Dialogue	In 2001 , the state of Maine gave FRONTLINE unprecedented access to observe the daily lives of its child protection caseworkers. Follow caseworkers as they interact with families and each other, dealing with the excruciating dilemmas and heartbreaking choices	120 Minutes	2001
FRONTLINE: Failure to Protect: The Taking of Logan Marr	In January 2001 5 year old Logan Marr was found dead in the basement of her foster mother's home in Chelsea, Maine. The foster mother, Sally Schofield , was a highly respected former caseworker for Maine's Department of Human Services. FRONTLINE examines the girl's short troubled life.	60 Minutes	2001
Hidden Victims: Children of Domestic Violence Lifetime Special	Dillon McDermott introduces the program on DV and its effects on children. Police respond to dv call. Children/youth talk in support group about their real life experiences and how silence turns into rage, and the fight back against the years of abuse and other unhealthy habits developed in response to these experiences.
It's Not Always Happy At My House	Collaborated with TriState Children's Project and the II. And MN Coalition Against Domestic Violence . The story follows the characters of the children in an abusive home from living in fear, isolation, and anger to calling the police to get help for their mother. Eventually they seek shelter and additional support. The film portrays the various emotions of living with domestic violence and the experience of reaching out to get help.	45 Minutes	1980

It's Not O.K. Let's Talk About Domestic Violence ( 8:51), American Bar Association Commission on Domestic Violence	Ben Savage hosts this program talking to various children coaching them on various ways they kept safe when one of their parents was abusive and had to leave the home. Ben highlights safety planning for children and the importance of reaching out and talking to adults until the right connection is made.	8:51 Minutes
Scenes From A Shelter: Talking About Domestic Violence	Scenes From a Shelter , a two-part film depicting life in a shelter through the eyes of children. Also included is I Do, and I Don't, a picturebook.	28 Minutes
Small Justice: Children and Custody	This program explores the family court system which routinely takes children away from the protective parent and puts them in the care of the person the children have named as their abuser. It describes how fathers use and sacrifice their children in order to control and punish the mothers, and how the courts, often unwittingly, help those men. By following the stories of three dedicated women and their lawyers the program exposes a systematic legal failure to protect those who need protection the most. A Video By Garland Waller	60 Minutes	2001
Survivors: An Animated Film (1998/16 min), Animation by Sheila Sofian (Intermedia)	This compelling new award-winning program uses powerful animated images to illustrate interviews of domestic violence and the counselors who work with them. The strong message and unique presentation allows the audience to hear and see these stories as if for the first time.	16 Minutes	1998
The Children Are Watching		12 Minutes	1995
Will you Hold My Child?	Looks at how we intervene in cases of battering where children are involved. Brings participants into the physical, emotional and spiritual turmoil of a home where battering is occurring. Offers a deeper understanding of the complex dynamics created by an abuser, and in particular, demonstrates how destructive the abuse is to the relationship between a mother and her children.
You're Hurting Me-Too: Children &amp; Dom. Violence	You're Hurting Me, Too! examines both the long and short term effects of domestic violence on children. Experts reveal that children who witness violence may be more at risk to commit suicide, engage in delinquent behavior as adults, and grow up to become victims or abusers themselves. Stresses the importance of providing counseling for children and the difficulties children face in the legal system	25 Minutes	1996
Teen

Title	Description	Length	Year
In the Mix: Twisted Love, National PBS Weekly Series for Teens (subtitles in Spanish)	"Audience: J, H, P. Using snappy MTV-style edits, camera angles, and effects, the issue oriented In the Mix series, airing on PBS, examines some of the hottest topics affecting teenagers today. This segment deals with the painful subject of dating abuse – when a partner is either physically, emotionally, or verbally assaulted, especially on a regular basis. Hosted by young people, including Neve Campbell from the TV show Party of Five, this video is honest informative, thorough, and best of all, proactive in it's handling of a sensitive subject. Case studies are presented coherently and clearly through interview with both victims and perpetrators of a variety of ethnicities. Adult domestic abuse counselors, and a district attorney provide practical and legal options for action, and help, while peer groups aid in emotional aspects. teens will gain an understanding of the issue and be better equipped to deal with it effectively. Fast pacing, articulate and concise interviews, and creative production design all combine to make this a solid choice. Highly recommended". - E. Gieschen	30 Minutes
It Ain't Love	Most Americans are aware of the growing problem of domestic violence-but few know how the same pain and life altering conflict can affect teens and their relationships. The program follows the young spirited members of FACES, a bold daring improve theater company based in NYC. The teens given 3 months for the project take a real look at their own lives, reenact the violence experiences and inflicted and share it in stage drama as a forum to educate others. In the process of recreation the FACES cast develop a new comprehensive view of abuse and triumph over its patterns breaking the cycle of abuse.	58 Minutes	1998
IUBICATE! Haz La Diferencia -Find Yourself, Make a Difference English/Spanish	This video centers on a high school classroom where students are discussing healthy and unhealthy relationships. Their responses take the film into four separate stories; each represents a different issue, such as teen dating violence, gender roles, communication, and peer pressure. Filled with colorful storytelling, mixed with local and national Latin/Hip-hop music, that gets teens to watch, address issues, and help make a difference.	17 Minutes
The Strength to Resist: Beyond Killing us Softly	Documentary about the fight against the toxic and degrading messages to girls and women that dominate the media. This documentary movingly presents the ideas of many leading authorities in the fields of psychology of women and girls, eating disorders, violence against women, and media literacy, all focusing on long term solutions.	33 Minutes	2000
Parenting
Title	Description	Length	Year
Elder Abuse
Title	Description	Length	Year

When Help Was There: Four Stories of Elder Abuse	Four separate cases of either physical, emotional, or financial abuse are presented: a Hispanic mother threatened by her son; and African-American woman physically abused by her husband; and Asian couple put out on the street by their son-in-law; a Caucasian man defrauded of possessions and bank accounts by a "friend".	19 Minutes
Faith Based
Title	Description	Length	Year
Broken Vows	An examination of domestic violence within institution of marriage and the difficulties of identifying/dealing with the abuse, pattern of control and loss of contact w/family, etc.and addressing the need to be HEARD or lack of response from pastors and community members, loss of relationship, and ability to maintain spirituality even in light of leaving/divorcing married spouse) Intended for clergy, congregations, religious educators, and staff of shelters and human service agencies. Topics include: understanding the dynamics of domestic violence; support of victims through religious and secular communities; and developing programs for the prevention of domestic violence. Presents a	59 Minutes	1994
To Save a Life: Ending DV in Jewish Families	This exceptional videotape is educational and intended for use in synagogues, shelters, and other places where women meet, talk and learn. To Save a Life provides guidance to Jewish women who are experiencing abuse in their marriages and to religious leaders, shelter staff, and other helpers who work with victims of domestic violence. The program directly addresses the religious issues that may be troubling women and preventing them from seeking help. It offers women hope and assures them they will not be alone as they undertake the difficult task of confronting abuse. The points of view of formerly abused Jewish women and of rabbis and psychologists is presented.	35 Minutes	1997
Wings Like A Dove	This video covers the Christian religious issues related to domestic violence and provides information on getting help. It is designed for use in shelters, churches, fellowships and other places where women meet. A study guide for facilitators accompanies it. This is an educational tool which provides guidance to Christian women who are experiencing abuse in their marriages and to clergy, shelter, staff, and other helpers who work with victims of domestic violence. The program addresses the religious issues that may be troubling women and preventing them from seeking help.	34 Minutes	1999
Cross Cultural
Title	Description	Length	Year
Journey Into Hope	In this film you will witness seven women and six men speak from their heras and represent various perspectives. Compassionate voices show the relationship between domestic violence, racism, and homophobia and how they affect individual lives. Despite the overwhelming majority of victims being female, many of the speakers in the film refer to the batterer as he or she to avoid the reality of some men who are abused by women. Responsibility and safety are vital to everyone.		2000

A Matter of Culture	A Minnesota town discusses cultural issues and domestic violence.	15 Minutes
Spanish
Title	Description	Length	Year
Domestic Violence and Stalking	1 in 12 women have been stalked at some point in their lives. Dramatic segments introduce Rachel and Carmen, two women attempting to end their relationships. As confrontations between these women and their partners are shown, the traits and typical behavior of stalkers are clearly revealed.	17 Minutes	1998
Julia in Three Beats	Examines the experience of several battered women in Puerto Rico. Shot in the shelter Casa Protegida Julia de Burgos, the protagonists tell their stories while they refocus on a life outside the circle of violence with the help of social workers and lawyers.		1995
IUBICATE! Haz La Diferencia -Find Yourself, Make a Difference	(English/Spanish) This video centers on a high school classroom where students are discussing healthy and unhealthy relationships. Their responses take the film into four separate stories; each represents a different issue, such as teen dating violence, gender roles, communication, and peer pressure. Filled with colorful storytelling, mixed with local and national Latin/Hip-hop music, that gets teens to watch, address issues, and help make a difference.	17 Minutes	1992
Un Nuevo Amanecer	TCFV created this Spanish-language video especially for the Latina/Latino population. The video portrays the life of a Latina and her experience with domestic violence in her everyday life (in dealing with family, friends, work and other systems). The 25-minute video was made for public education, support groups, and outreach and training. Production of this video was made possible by the Texas Department of Human Services in cooperation with TCFV's Latina Task Force, Voces Unidas.	26:22 Minutes	1992
Violencia Domestica y Abuso Substancial	Los espectadores aprenden diferentes formas de violencia emocional y sexual, maneras comunes en las cuales las personas realizan el abuso substancial y una y otra vez. Este video tambien provee ejemplos de como el ciclo de violencia domestica y codependencia pueden ser quebrados por reconocer que estos son comportamientos aprendidos que pueden ser cambiados.	23 Minutes	1994
Violencia Domestica y Los Hombres	Algunos hombres son mostrados tratando con sus patrones de toda la vida de comportamiento violento. Conforme los hombres atienden a un grupo de consejo, los espectadores aprenden que el poder y el control estan en la raiz de la violencia domestica, y que el abuso viene en varias formas. Los espectadores tambien aprenden que los patrones de conducta busiva son usualmente manejados, desde abajo, a traves de generaciones, y que los abusadores son responsables de sus actos. Finalmente, un hombre aplica algo de lo que ha aprendido para empezar a construir un patron mas saludable de conducta.	19 Minutes	1994

Violencia Domestica y Los Mujeres	Este programa cuenta la historia de Olivia, y de como ella tomo accion para protegerse ella misma y a su hijo de la violencia domestica. Los expectadores aprenderan las características de un abusador, y los pasos que las mujeres deben tomar para llevarse ellas mismas a una casa segura.	16 Minutes	1994
Violencia Domestica y Los Ninos	Este video examina como reconocer a los ninos sufridos por los devastantes efectos de la violencia domestica. El programa se enfoca en madres quienes son abusadas y el efecto que tiene en los ninos. Varias madres son mostradas aprendiendo a entender y contender con la violencia domestica, afecto que tiene en sus ninos.	16 Minutes	1994
Vivaje Hacia la Esperanza : Perspectives multiculturales sobre la violencia domestica (2000/ )	Es importante tener alguien con quien se puede hablar despues de ver esta pelicula. Cuando Ud. Necesita apoyo, llamele a alguien en quiiien puede confiar o a una agencia que se trata de la violencia domestica. Nadie debe confrontar el abuso solo. En essta pelicula Ud. vera a siete mujeres y seis hombres que hablan de sus corazones y que representan una variedad de perspectivas.		2000
Ya No Mas	Un video-taller en espanol sobre la violencia fisica y emocional contra las mujeres. Destinado por utilizacion en grupos de ayuda mutua y foros publicos, el video-taller usa dramatizaciones y entrevistas en camara para educar y iniciar discusion acerca de las varias formas de violencia domestica que sufren millones de mujeres.	27 Minutes

Mental Health & Disabilities

Title	Description	Length	Year
Abused Woman	Leonore Walker, psychologist and DV expert, provides the viewer recreates actual therapy sessions using survivor approach. Awareness of minimization, history of abuse, denial & association of the client are key factors to extract in initial assessment. Her focus throughout the sessions focus on mutual goals to allow the victim to obtain and reach personal empowerment in decision making at all times. The sessions track the client's progressions and setbacks over one year span from the abuse to separation to reconsideration to personal therapy on childhood issues.	89 Minutes	1994
ADWAS Ready for Anything	A look at shelter and how they can better prepare to serve and assist deaf battered victims.	14 Minutes	2001

Health Care

Title	Description	Length	Year
Battered Women in Your Practice	Guide and Resource for Health Professional in Detecting signs of dom. Violence and how to help Network for Continuing Med. Education	20 Minutes	1994

Breaking the Silence: Course II Health Education	Discusses how health care providers can help victims of domestic violence.	81 Minutes
Domestic Violence Screening for Health Care Professionals	The movie provides three short scenarios for health care professionals on how to properly screen their patients to identify domestic violence.		2002
The Examination: Sexual Assault Evidence Collection State of Connecticut Part One	Provides guidelines for health care providers in ensuring proper evidence collection techniques concerning cases of sexual assault.	31 Minutes
The Laboratory: Forensic Evidence Analysis State of Connecticut Part Two	Provides guidelines for health care providers in ensuring proper evidence collection techniques concerning cases of sexual assault.	20 Minutes
When Injuries Speak Who Will Listen (Manual Available)	A video for healthcare professionals about the challenges faced by medical personnel, and the solutions available to them when responding to domestic violence. Featuring internationally-known, Dr. Jacquelyn Campbell, Anna D. Wolfe, Chair & Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs at Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing, and staff from the University, the program shows their assessment strategies and protocols when dealing with domestic violence survivors. It discusses patterns and the health impact of abuse, issues of immediate safety, dealing with the batterer in the health care setting, and providing support and services to survivors. Also featured are Dr. Phyllis Sharps, Associate Professor at Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, Dr. Kim Bullock, Vice Chair of the Emergency Department at Providence Hospital, Washington, DC, and Dr. Daniel Sheridan, Assistant Professor at Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, and Clinical Forensic Nurse Specialist.	32 Minutes	2005
Substance Abuse
Title	Description	Length	Year
Trauma: No More Secrets	This video is about women and trauma covering the wide ranging effects upon women who experience it and the strong link and result of both substance abuse and mental health issues that can arise from exposure to single to long term trauma. For those who seek better insight to understanding the waters and complexity of trauma.	35 Minutes	2002
Gay, Lesbian &amp; Transgender
Title	Description	Length	Year

Lesbian Domestic Violence	Three segments on lesbian domestic violence.	20 Minutes
My Girlfriend Did It: Lesbian Battering	The video defines the dynamics of women's same sex abusive relationships and examines the impact of oppression when addressing women to women battering. Personal stories of abuse are shared along with testimonies about the unique situations faced by lesbians. Their fear of coming out, their particular difficulty finding resources in rural areas, the harm done to family and friends as well as the abused women are all discussed. Experts speak on the need for community education, resources, additional research on the issue, and definite need for support for women battered by women.	40 Minutes	1995
Documentaries &amp; History
Title	Description	Length	Year
Beyond the Shelter Door: Beginnings to Present	Historical overview of the workings of shelters and dv coalitions, forming from the early grassroots organization to modern day efforts with comments from of women from each time period shedding light on how it began.	30 Minutes	1980
Dual Arrest in CT and Its Impact on Victims Public Forum	Hosted by Mark Gaboury, Assoc. Professor of Criminal Justice UNH. Features local & national. speakers panelist members: Mark Wynn, a retired PD and Expert consultant on DV, Roberta Valente, Attorney, Consultant and Senior. Advisor of NNEDV, & Janice DuBois, Ex. Dir. or RI Supreme Court to speak on dual arrest, increase of dual arrest, and its impacts on victims, law enforcement, advocacy, and prosecution. -13 panel members present for Q & A surrounding this topic.	1 Hour 20 Minutes	2004
Looking Back Pushing Forward	Short Polaroid video about the history of the domestic violence movement.
One Fine Day: Celebrate American Woman Past to Present	The lyrics pay tribute to Emily Dickinson, will Cather and Emma Goldman specifically but the images evoke the panoramic sweep of American her story from the 19th century to the present moment. 'One Fine Day', a feminist music video/film that combines the work of singer Kay Weaver and scenarist Martha Wheelock, could stand as a rousing finale to any Women's History Month program.	6 Minutes	1985
Silent Witness Music Video	Silent Witness Music Video.		1997
Silent Witness National Initiative March to End the Silence: October 18, 1997 Washington, D.C.	Silent Witness National Initiative March to End the Silence: October 18, 1997 Washington, D.C.		1997
Still Killing us Softly: Advertising's Image of Women	This documentary overthrew forever the complacent views that American advertising is benevolent, entertaining and supportive of women's ideas of themselves. Using examples of ads from magazines, newspapers and billboards, this film presents a concise analysis of a $200 billion a year industry that preys on the fears and insecurities of consumers.	32 Minutes	2001

Law Enforcement

Title	Description	Length	Year
Alive and Well in Quincy Massachusetts - 60 MINUTES	The Domestic Violence Program and Policy in Quincy MA is showcased looking at their serious police and judicial response to DV and the positive life changing affects upon the women.	15 Minutes	1992
CT Police Response to Crimes of Domestic Violence	Enactment of officers responding to a police call from on ongoing domestic dispute. Real life situations and realities of abuses beyond 'hitting' are looked at from accounts to rape to children's abuse. Different scenarios are shown and how the police responds to each one shows their influence in dealing with domestic violence calls and the impact they can have both upon the case and the woman.	30 Minutes	1997
Domestic Assault: The Law Enforcement Response	This video gives seven case scenarios of officers investigating domestic violence calls.	37 Minutes	1990
Dr. Richard Gelles: Family Violence Risk Assessment Training	Dr. Geis speaks of the State Justice Grant of 1993/1994 on the development of the screening and assessment tool for reporting to the courts. The forum discusses in detail the Kingston Screening Instrument, the designs of education and treatment model to add to alternative sanctions already in existence in CT, and the evaluation instrument to evaluate both the screening tool and programs and sanctions once put in place. He speaks of the significance of this 1 page user friendly tool as unique and never developed else where in the country with the ultimate goal that with tool will provide family services a formal method of assessing risk and interpreting the high volume of DV caseloads to determine which cases may carry greater risk in effort to reduce the amount of dv cases and related homicides. His research sheds light on the various type of offenders and the significance of having a tool available to preventive measure for further homicides.	95 Minutes	1995
In Crimes Wake &amp; Bill Moyer: Violence in America	A close-up of police talking about the realities of what occurs when women leave abusive husband/partner. A woman shares her personal story of control and abuse she endured from her husband in a support group setting. Police Sergeant talks about the importance of proper police response and actions for domestic violence calls. Other topics in support group explore police response and other affects and impact it can have upon the women who phone the police for help -losing credibility, fear of not being believed, et al.	27 Minutes	1992
Texas Council on Family Violence: Circle of Accountability (17:35)	"Circle of Accountability" is a 17 minute video about the law enforcement and criminal justice response to the crimes of family violence. Also featured are men who have been violent to women and have changed their behaviors and attitudes with the help of intervention programs. Circle of Accountability was awarded a Bronze Medal by the Houston International Video Festival in 2002.	17:35 Minutes
The Law Enforcement Response to DV Part One and Two

The Law Enforcement Response to DV Part Three and Four
Legal/Advocates
Title	Description	Length	Year
Stopping Violence Against Women: Using New Federal Laws with opening Remark by Janet Reno		1 Hour
The Story of Rachel	This dramatic four-minute presentation depicts the events set in motion by one battered woman's call to 911 ... from the criminal court case, to the child protection investigation, to a protection-order petition, to more calls to the police, to a visitation center visit, to her ultimate eviction. This training tool is a powerful illustration of the complex relationship between battered women and the systems they turn to for help.		2003
Community Response
Title	Description	Length	Year
Battered Hearts: Story of Family Violence	Accounts from different angles of effect of dv: A true story from Michigan child of how her mother died while on the phone calling for help; Other woman share their experiences; Police speak out about effects on children and need for community to learn more about it; child speaks out.	11:30 Minutes	1996
Hostages At Home	Stories of murder by husbands and boyfriends, an in depth look of how love can go wrong. This 52 minute video has been called the "Text-Book Video" on the subject of domestic violence. Easily adapted to any community awareness program or women's shelter. Hostage at Home features 5 women from different ethnic and socioeconomic groups who have survived domestic violence. This program dispels myths about domestic violence and examines the effects on the community as a health issue. S	52 Minutes
House of Ruth "Take a Stand Against Violence"	True accounts of women who were at mercy of abuser and theirs stories of torture and fear and survival and accounts of support received from House Of Ruth	12:45 Minutes	2002
Workplace
Title	Description	Length	Year

When Domestic Violence Comes to Work	Domestic violence is the number one cause of injury to women in the United States. Domestic violence may occur at home but it also comes to work and affects the bottom line of every private and public sector organization. Women who are abused at home have increased health care costs, absenteeism, turnover, and stress in the workplace, as well as lower productivity. They and their co-workers are at risk for lowered employee morale, resulting in poorer quality products and customer service. Employees also can be at risk of real physical danger. When Domestic Violence Comes To Work 2000 can help educate employers and employees about domestic violence, and help develop policies, procedures and benefit programs.	60 Minutes	2000
--	--	-------------------	-------------	--